Dear Jim:

Many thanks for your note of 27 October. My talk at the Council in New York was quite informal and the only manuscript I had was a few notes which I fear would not be very intelligible by themselves. However, when you are next here I should be glad to give you a general outline of what I told the Council if it is still of interest. Please let me know when you are going to be in Washington.

This letter carries with it all best wishes from Clover and me to you both.

Sincerely,

Signed
